

THE WHISTLE PIG

Submission Guidelines

Elmore County's Literary Journal

The Whistle Pig is seeking writing and art submissions for its fourth volume, including original short stories, poems, memoirs, personal musings, drama, song lyrics, or other short literary pieces. The journal also features a variety of visual art in black & white. The intent of The Whistle Pig is to showcase local writers and artists.

DEADLINE: All entries must be submitted by April 6, 2012

Payment with Publication is one copy.

Email submissions to literaryarts@mharts.org with subject "The Whistle Pig submission." Art work may also be submitted to Patti Hamaishi at P & C Plumbing or Brenda Raub at the Mountain Home High School.

*Include a cover sheet with a brief biography (not to exceed 50 words), name, address, email, and phone number.

*Prose: no more than 8,000 words, double spaced.

*Poetry: Three pages or 1,200 words, appropriate spacing.

*Font size: 12 pt., Times New Roman.

*Include, in the upper right hand corner, a header on each page stating title and page number (please no name; submissions are judged anonymously).

*All writing must be production ready. The editorial committee reserves the right to make small adjustments in the writing such as spelling, punctuation and usage.

*Visual Art should be no more than 8 1/2 by 11 inches. The work will be published in black and white. The selection committee for these works will be members of the Visual Arts Guild.

Please contact us with any questions, concerns, or to purchase a back issue.

www.mharts.org
literaryarts@mharts.org
598-5548

